Case No. CJ-10-2525

AUTHORIZATION OF CLIENT TO REPRESENTATION BY LICENSED LEGAL INTERN

Plaintiff, Oklahoma Department of Securities ex rel. Irving L. Faught, for its claims against the above-named Defendants, is represented by the undersigned attorney ("Attorney") and by a Licensed Legal Intern, under the supervision of the Attorney, limited by, and under, the Rules of the Supreme Court of Oklahoma on Legal Internship pursuant to the Omnibus Authorization of Client to Representation by Licensed Legal Intern, attached and incorporated herein by reference.

OMNIBUS AUTHORIZATION OF CLIENT TO REPRESENTATION BY LICENSED LEGAL INTERN

I, the undersigned client, state that:

1. The undersigned attorney represents the Oklahoma Department of Securities ("Department"), ex rel. Irving L. Faught, Administrator.
2. The attorney has explained the Licensed Legal Internship program to me and that I may be represented at times by a Licensed Legal Intern who is working under the supervision of the attorney.
3. I understand that a Licensed Legal Intern is a law student and not a fully accredited lawyer.
4. I further understand that a Licensed Legal Intern has been granted a limited license to practice law in certain cases by the Supreme Court of Oklahoma.
5. Knowing the above information and after having the status of a Licensed Legal Intern fully explained to me by the attorney, I consent to being represented by a Licensed Legal Intern.

Respectfully submitted,

OKLAHOMA DEPARTMENT OF SECURITIES
Irving L. Faught, Administrator

I, the undersigned attorney, have been approved by the Oklahoma Bar Association as a supervising attorney under the Licensed Legal Internship Rules, and have explained the above information to the Administrator of the Department, believe he understands the status of a Licensed Legal Intern, and agree to supervise the Licensed Legal Intern in any and all applicable adjudicative proceedings.
