ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST
AND
NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

Pursuant to Section 1-602 of the Oklahoma Uniform Securities Act of 2004 ("Act"), Okla. Stat. tit. 71, §§ 1-101 through 1-701 (2011), the Oklahoma Department of Securities ("Department") has commenced an investigation into the activities of John Johanning, Inc., and John Arnold Johanning (collectively, "Respondents"). Based thereon, the following Findings of Fact, Authorities, and Conclusions of Law are adopted in support of this Order against Respondents.

Findings of Fact

Background

1. John Johanning, Inc. ("JJI") (CRD No. 118964) is an Oklahoma corporation that was registered under the Act as an investment adviser from March 3, 2010, until October 31, 2012, and at other times prior to March 3, 2010. While registered under the Act, JJI's principal office and place of business was located in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

2. John Arnold Johanning ("Johanning") (CRD No. 4493303) is an individual who was registered under the Act as an investment adviser representative of JJI from March 3, 2010, until October 31, 2012, and at other times prior to March 3, 2010. At all times material hereto, Johanning has been the President of JJI.

3. On October 31, 2012, the Administrator of the Department issued an order revoking the registrations of Respondents under the Act. The Order was based, in part, upon the conclusion of law that Respondents had impeded representatives of the Administrator from conducting an examination under Section 1-410 of the Act by failing to provide access to the business books, documents, and other records to such representatives, in violation of Section 1-410 of the Act and 660:11-7-45 of the Rules of the Oklahoma Securities Commission and the Administrator of the Department of Securities ("Rules").

4. Respondents have not been registered under the Act, or federal securities laws, since October 31, 2012.

Current Advisory Activities

5. Respondents continue to maintain an office in Oklahoma City.

6. On February 5, 2015, JJI, by and through Johanning, entered into an agreement with a public trust for an Oklahoma municipality in connection with a revenue bond refunding project ("Agreement").

7. Under the Agreement, JJI was employed by the trust for the purposes of assisting the trust in its refinancing project and providing "expert financial counsel in making the terms and provisions for the issuance of indebtedness to be incurred in securing said capital most acceptable to the [trust.]"

8. The Agreement further provides that for its services JJI shall be paid 1.75% of the principal amount of each issue of said indebtedness incurred by the trust "plus the out of pocket expenses incurred in printing and distributing the offering material for such indebtedness."

To the extent any of these Findings of Fact are more properly characterized as Conclusions of Law, they should be so considered.

Authorities

1. Section 1-102 of the Act provides, in pertinent part:

17. - b. is an agent whose performance of investment advice is solely incidental to the individual acting as an agent and who does not receive special compensation for investment advisory services, or
- c. is excluded by rule adopted or order issued under this act[.]

2. Section 1-403 of the Act provides, in pertinent part:

A. It is unlawful for a person to transact business in this state as an investment adviser unless the person is registered under this act as an investment adviser or is exempt from registration as an investment adviser under subsection B of this section.

B. The following persons are exempt from the registration requirement of subsection A of this section:

1. A federal covered investment adviser;
2. A person without a place of business in this state that is registered under the securities act of the state in which that person has its principal place of business if its only clients in this state are:
  - a. federal covered investment advisers, investment advisers registered under this act, or broker-dealers registered under this act,
  - b. institutional investors,

  - d. any other client exempted by rule adopted or order issued under this act;
3. A person without a place of business in this state if the person has had, during the preceding twelve (12) months, not more than five clients that are residents of this state in addition to those specified under paragraph 2 of this subsection; or
4. Any other person exempted by rule adopted or order issued under this act.

C. It is unlawful for an investment adviser, directly or indirectly, to employ or associate with an individual to engage in an activity related to investment advice in this state if the registration of the individual is suspended or revoked under this act, or the individual is barred from employment or association with an investment adviser, federal covered investment adviser, or broker-dealer by an order under this act, the Securities and Exchange Commission, or a self-regulatory organization, unless the investment adviser did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the suspension, revocation, or bar. Upon request from the investment adviser and for good cause, the Administrator, by order, may waive, in whole or in part, the application of the prohibitions of this subsection to the investment adviser.

D. It is unlawful for an investment adviser to employ or associate with an individual required to be registered under this act as an investment adviser representative who transacts business in this state on behalf of the investment adviser unless the individual is required under subsection A of Section 21 of this act [Section 1-404 of this title] or is exempt from registration under subsection B of Section 21 of this act [Section 1-404 of this title].

E. The exemption from registration provided by subparagraph b of paragraph 2 of subsection B of this section shall not be available to any person who acts as an investment adviser to the state, any county, municipality or school district of this state, or any other political subdivision of this state; any agency or corporate or other instrumentality of any such entity; or any pension fund for the benefit of employees of any such entity.

3. Section 1-404 of the Act provides, in pertinent part:

A. It is unlawful for an individual to transact business in this state as an investment adviser representative unless the individual is registered under this act as an investment adviser representative or is exempt from registration as an investment adviser representative under subsection B of this section.

B. The following individuals are exempt from the registration requirement of subsection A of this section:

1. An individual who is employed by or associated with an investment adviser that is exempt from registration under subsection B of Section 20 of this act [Section 1-403 of this title] unless the individual has a place of business in this state or is not a "supervised person" as that term is defined in Section 202(a)(25) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (15 U.S.C. Section 80b-2(a)(25)); and

2. Any other individual exempted by rule adopted or order issued under this act.

C. The registration of an investment adviser representative is not effective while the investment adviser representative is not employed by or associated with an investment adviser registered under this act or a federal covered investment adviser that has made or is required to make a notice filing under Section 22 of this act [Section 1-405 of this title].

D. An individual may transact business as an investment adviser representative for more than one investment adviser or federal covered investment adviser at a time unless a rule adopted or order issued under this act prohibits or limits an individual from acting as an investment adviser representative for more than one investment adviser or federal covered investment adviser.

E. It is unlawful for an individual acting as an investment adviser representative, directly or indirectly, to conduct business in this state on behalf of an investment adviser or a federal covered investment adviser if the registration of the individual as an investment adviser representative is suspended or revoked; or the individual is barred from employment or association with an investment adviser or a federal covered investment adviser by an order under this act, the Securities and Exchange Commission, or a self-regulatory organization; or the individual is subject to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction temporarily, preliminarily or permanently enjoining such individual from conducting business in this state on behalf of an investment adviser or a federal covered investment adviser. Upon request from a federal covered investment adviser and for good cause, the Administrator, by order issued, may waive, in whole or in part, the application of the requirements of this subsection to the federal covered investment adviser.

F. An investment adviser registered under this act, a federal covered investment adviser that has filed a notice under Section 22 of this act [Section 1-405 of this title], or a broker-dealer registered under this act is not required to employ or associate with an individual as an investment adviser representative for the referral of investment advisory clients so long as any compensation paid by such persons for such referral is paid to an investment adviser registered under this act, a federal covered investment adviser who has filed a notice under Section 22 of this act [Section 1-405 of this title], or a broker-dealer registered under this act with which the individual is employed or associated as an investment adviser representative.

4. Section 1-604 of the Act provides, in pertinent part:

A. If the Administrator determines that a person has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in an act, practice, or course of business constituting a violation of this act or a rule adopted or order issued under this act or constituting a dishonest or unethical practice or that a person has materially aided, is materially aiding, or is about to materially aid an act, practice, or course of business constituting a violation of this act or a rule adopted or order issued under this act or constituting a dishonest or unethical practice, the Administrator may:

1. Issue an order directing the person to cease and desist from engaging in the act, practice, or course of business or to take other action necessary or appropriate to comply with this act;

2. Issue an order denying, suspending, revoking, or conditioning the exemptions for a broker-dealer under subparagraph d or f of paragraph 1 of subsection B of Section 18 of this act [Section 1-401 of this title] or an investment adviser under subparagraph c of paragraph 2 of subsection B of Section 20 of this act [Section 1-403 of this title]; or

3. Issue an order under Section 9 of this act [Section 1-204 of this title].

B. An order under subsection A of this section is effective on the date of issuance. Upon issuance of the order, the Administrator shall promptly serve each person subject to the order with a copy of the order and a notice that the order has been entered. The order must include a statement whether the Administrator will seek a civil penalty or costs of the investigation, a statement of the reasons for the order, and notice that, within fifteen (15) days after receipt of a request in a record from the person, the matter will be scheduled for a hearing and the hearing shall be commenced within fifteen (15) days of the matter being set for hearing. If a person subject to the order does not request a hearing and none is ordered by the Administrator, within thirty (30) days after the date of service of the order, the order, that may include a civil penalty or costs of the investigation if a civil penalty or costs were sought in the statement accompanying the order, becomes final as to that person by operation of law. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the Administrator, after notice of and opportunity for hearing to each person subject to the order, may modify or vacate the order or extend it until final determination.

C. If a hearing is requested or ordered pursuant to subsection B of this section, a hearing must be held pursuant to the Administrative Procedures Act. A final order may not be issued unless the Administrator makes findings of fact and conclusions of law in a record in accordance with the Administrative Procedures Act. The final order may make final, vacate, or modify the order issued under subsection A of this section.

D. In a final order under subsection C of this section, the Administrator may impose a civil penalty up to a maximum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) for a single violation or up to Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00) for multiple violations in a single proceeding or a series of related proceedings.

E. In a final order, the Administrator may charge the actual cost of an investigation or proceeding for a violation of this act or a rule adopted or order issued under this act.

F. If a petition for judicial review of a final order is not filed in accordance with Section 47 of this act [Section 1-609 of this title], the Administrator may file a certified copy of the final order with the clerk of a court of competent jurisdiction. The order so filed has the same effect as a judgment of the court and may be recorded, enforced, or satisfied in the same manner as a judgment of the court.

G. If a person does not comply with an order under this section, the Administrator may petition a court of competent jurisdiction to enforce the order. The court may not require the Administrator to post a bond in an action or proceeding under this section. If the court finds, after service and opportunity for hearing, that the person was not in compliance with the order, the court may adjudge the person in civil contempt of the order. The court may impose a further civil penalty against the person for contempt in an amount not to exceed One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) for each violation and may grant any other relief the court determines is just and proper in the circumstances.

Conclusions of Law

1. JJI is transacting business in this state as an unregistered investment adviser in violation of Section 1-403 of the Act.

2. Johanning is transacting business in this state as an unregistered investment adviser representative in violation of Section 1-404 of the Act.

3. The Administrator has the authority to order Respondents to cease and desist from engaging in acts, practices, and/or courses of business constituting a violation of the Act and/or Rules and to pay a civil penalty.

4. It is in the public interest to order Respondents to cease and desist from engaging in acts, practices, and/or courses of business constituting a violation of the Act and/or Rules and to pay a civil penalty.

To the extent any of these Conclusions of Law are more properly characterized as Findings of Fact, they should be so considered.
